Romania Mission Trip

A Unique Opportunity to Grow in Christ and Serve the "least of these" (Mt. 25:40)

May 16-24, 2025

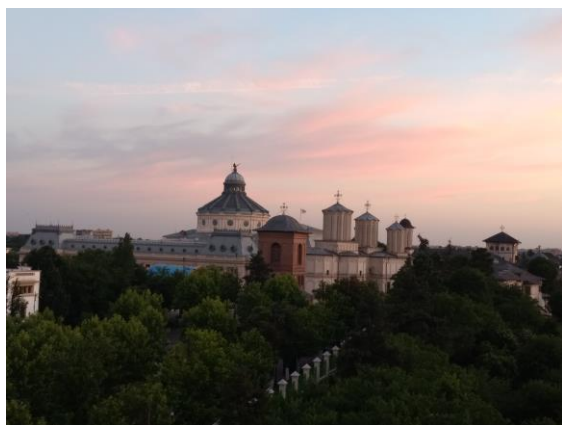

"Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matt 6:21). Annapolis Pan-Orthodox College Ministry (ACM) in Annapolis, MD is offering a unique Mission Trip to all young adults desiring to strengthen their faith in Christ, minister and love the children of the Pro Vita orphanage in Valea Plopului, Romania, and experience the spiritual riches of a baptized Orthodox culture.

The Mission Trip Leader

The Rev. Fr. Robert Miclean is pastor of Holy Archangels Orthodox Church in Annapolis, MD and is OCF Chaplain at the U.S. Naval Academy and St. John's College, where he has served for eighteen years. Fr. Robert has led numerous pilgrimages and over ten mission trips to Romania, the land of his forefathers. He enjoys sharing with others the riches of Romanian Orthodox spirituality and helping all to grow in the love of Christ. He, his wife and six children live on a farm in Denton, MD.

Be Refreshed in Christ and the Holy Orthodox Faith

Focus more on Christ and grow in faith. Be inspired by the Romanian people and their Saints. Minister to those in need. Experience Romanian hospitality, learn to love more as Christ loves, Venerate the relics of the Saints. Be emboldened to witness to the truth of Christ upon your return!

Highlights

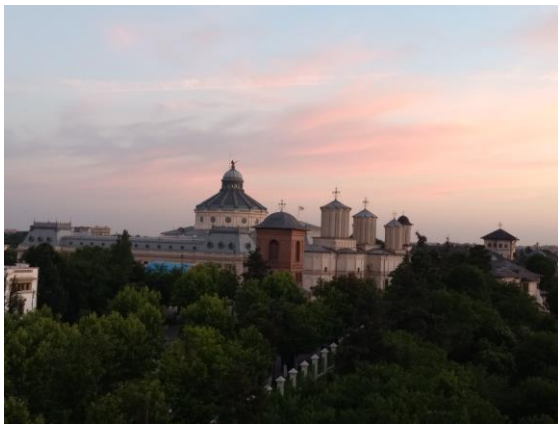

We arrive in Bucharest, travel to the unique Pro Vita orphanage and ministry begun by Fr. Nicolae Tanase, home to over 300 disadvantaged or orphaned children, where we will spend time with them and do a work project for the Pro Vita ministry. We will also visit the holy monastery of Crasna nestled in the beautiful foothills of the Carpathian Mountains. We return to Bucharest for our final two days, visit St. Nicholas (the 'Russian' church of the University, last church built by Czar Nicholas II), Antim Monastery, home to the "Burning Bush" movement that prepared the Church for Communist persecution, venerate the hand of St. Nicholas, the relics of St. Spiridon, St. Dimitrie the New, St. John Chrysostom, Ss. Constantine and Helen, and many other Saints and historic churches, together with some of the Patriarchal and Orthodox bookstores in old Bucharest.
